Filing a complaint

TOOLS FOR AN INFORMED PUBLIC :

1) CODE OF ETHICS :

www.Association.Quebec.AQTN.ca/code.php

The code of ethics must be followed at all times in the therapist's practice.

2) STANDARDS OF PRACTICE FOR MASSAGE THERAPY :

<https://www.aqtn.ca/standards-de-pratique-massotherapie.php>

Our standards of practice provide an additional framework for our massage therapists. They are also a tool for the public to better identify situations that may lead to a complaint. They can be reviewed anonymously.

Process

Anyone can file a complaint, whether in writing, by email, by fax or through our website. However, to formalize a complaint, it must be made in writing.

Once we have received the initial filing of a complaint, we will contact the person to assess the seriousness of the situation and establish the preliminary measures that will be taken, including an investigation if necessary. We will follow-up on any complaint submitted within five business days of receipt.

Filing a complaint

A complaint is the expression of at least one of the following three elements:

- An accusation against a member that involves or relates to an article of the code of ethics.
- Identification of a potential or actual harm that a client may have suffered.
- A corrective measure that is being claimed.

Does not constitute a complaint: Any informal process to correct a particular problem, in which the problem is addressed as part of the therapist's regular activities without the client having complained. Should the complaint relate to "sexual exploitation", we have a contact at the RCMP. You should know, however, that only you can file a complaint directly to the police. AQTN publishes the frequencies of complaints in our annual activities reports, which is publicly available on our website.

Any client who wishes to make a complaint must do so in writing and send it to our official correspondence address. The complaint should clearly include all elements of this form. If necessary, please attach additional pages.

*It is strongly recommended that you make a copy
